

When angry waters fiercely flow,
With all you may subdue them;
But when your friends' ill-natured grow
Just read THE CRITIC to them.

THE CHANGES OPPOSED.

TWO REPORTS ON THE PRAYER BOOK QUESTION.

Annual Convention of the Maryland Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church, held at the Church of the Epiphany to-day.

A half-hundred Episcopalian ministers, in their white robes, attended the noon service at the Church of the Epiphany to-day. Beside them were as many more "Theologians" who did not wear robes.

The 1901 annual convention of the Diocese of Maryland, composed of about 150 clergymen and an equal number of laymen, met at the Epiphany Church of the Epiphany to-day.

The church was full of ladies, and after the services, during a recess of a half-hour, they were taken, there were hand-shakings and a general exchange of greetings.

It was the secretary's old trick, in which the papers and documents of each succeeding convention have been kept from time to time.

FOR THE SERVICES TO-DAY. The altar was handsomely decorated with a trio of bouquets. After the regular services, communion services were held, and after that, a half-hour's recess was taken.

THE TESTIMONY ALL IN. The testimony in the case of Dorsey Suter, charged with the murder of James Payne, was concluded in the Criminal Court this morning.

THE LONG AND SHORT HAIL. A complaint of a violation of the long and short haul clause of the Interstate Commerce law has been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

THE SURVIVORS OF THE HAZELTINE. SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—Captain S. A. Hazeltine and crew of six men of the schooner Hazel, which was wrecked on the coast of the Hawaiian Islands, arrived here last night.

THE FASTEST EASTWARD PASSAGE. NEW YORK, May 22.—A special to the Herald from Queenstown says: The City of Paris of the Lunan line arrived here last night, having made the fastest eastward passage on record.

LITTLE TIME FOR BUSINESS.

A Horde of Office-Seekers Besiege the Commissioners.

The Commissioners were at their desks bright and early this morning, but when they arrived they found a crowd awaiting them and plenty of business to attend to.

About 10 o'clock the Commissioners left the office and drove to the White House, where they had a short interview with President Harrison.

THE COUNSEL IN THE SUBMER CASE BEGINS THEIR ARGUMENTS. The testimony in the case of Dorsey Suter, charged with the murder of James Payne, was concluded in the Criminal Court this morning.

THE 1890 ENCAMPMENT.

MORE G. A. R. MEN WHO STRONGLY FAVOR THIS CITY.

Many Reasons Why Washington Should Be the Place—Fifth Anniversary of the Grand Review is Celebrated.

J. S. Mortimer, Rawlins Post, "I am in full earnest accord with the project, and consider that this city is by all odds entitled to the honor of the 1890 Encampment."

George Hinkle, Rawlins Post, "The movement meets with my cordial approval. There are thousands of soldiers and living veterans who participated in the grand review of 1863, and many of these survivors would be glad to recall Washington as the place where they were."

H. E. Weston, Post Commander and Adjutant, "There is no doubt in my mind but that we will have an extra session, and that the President will call Congress to meet in October."

Dr. E. S. Kimball, "The fact that so many of the great tenors are big heavy men gives rise to the popular impression that they get fat by living here."

WHAT PEOPLE SAY.

Doorkeeper Loefer at the White House.

"I have been a steady trot for me to-day," said Doorkeeper Loefer, "and callers have been pretty busy for the President since 11 o'clock this morning."

Colonel J. G. McKibben, "All that we can promise is that visitors to Marshall Hall will be taken care of in every sense of the word."

Hon. John B. Clark, "There are sixteen contested elections already on the docket for the incoming Congress and there may be several more ere the idea of December Congresses are given serious consideration."

ALEXANDRIA'S TRIBUTE.

THE MONUMENT TO BE UNVEILED ON FRIDAY.

The Memory of the Confederate Dead to be Perpetuated in Stone—History of the Undertaking—The Programme of Exercises.

The afternoon of day after to-morrow, before thousands of people, a pretty young woman will, by a sharp pull at a string, set the monument to the Confederate dead in Alexandria, Virginia.

The young lady will be Miss Virginia Beverly Corne, whose father, General Montgomery D. Corne, is a veteran of the Mexican war, as well as one of the Confederate soldiers.

APRIL, FOUR YEARS AGO. Edgar Warfield introduced at a meeting of the Alexandria Confederate Veterans Association a resolution to the effect that a monument to the Confederate dead in Alexandria, Virginia, be erected.

THE PROPOSITION. The Alexandria Confederate Veterans Association, organized in 1889, has since that time been working for the erection of a monument to the Confederate dead in Alexandria, Virginia.
